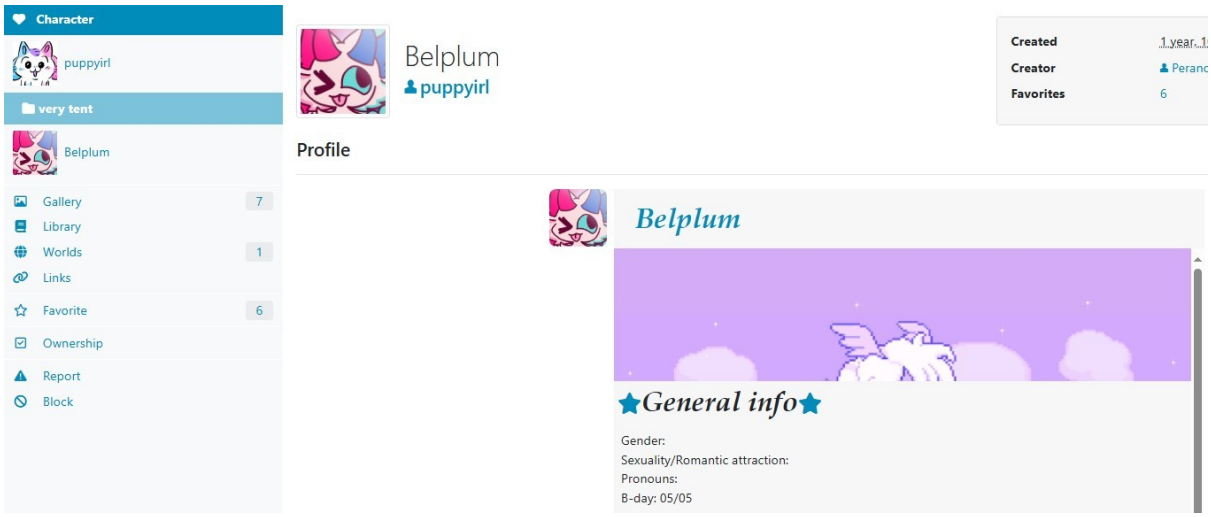
ARROW CALLOUT
TW FOR: ZOOPHILIA N PROSHIP

Character over pricing:

He prices characters that have NO added art to them with 30-50 dollars, but sometimes even more.

An example is my own design he got. He got this character from a trade with me and haves NO added art, but he valeus it more then he got it for, multiple people offered on it but nothing was accepted, he puts a huge valeu on characters he never used that arent worth all of that



Scamer:

Arrow is a notoriois scamer but something recent is him breaking closed traides BEFORE he had the rule of "no close trading" on his adopet/sales acc. A recente scam of breaking closed traides is him not giving Lost4Nexbula/Nex his character Xavier. Nex and Arrow were in a relationship and Arrow made(manipulated) Nex into giving his fursona to Arrow and once he didnt want Xavi anymore he should give it back to Nex, but after the relationship ended this wasnt done and the character was instead putted for sale (atm this character is "back in use" even tho barely any art haves been added to it) also admitting that he scammed someone

ARROW
04/06/2025 9:22 PM
YEAH
I scammed him when I was 12 but I made up for it and apologized but he kinda still holds it over my head (edited)

Manipulator/Guilt-tripping:
Arrow constantly manipulates and forces people to give him characters, see some examples below:

sorry theyve been a dreamie literally since the day they were created and the closed trade thing made me frown hsrd i fear (edited)

ARROW 5:08 PM

is there a way i cud get full ownership of One back..... idk its just ive felt less and less content with the co own and I genuinely want him fully back at this point, Im really sorry about this as i know how much he means to you i just dont know if i feel super duper comfortable with the co own anymore. im willing to offer things in return for him back if its okay with you since you offered things for the co ownership

are you sure you arent able to take a trade for him back? like i said ive felt really discomforted myself co owning him as of late (which im not sure why), but i know this is hard so if you rly feel like you arent able to without at least thinking thats okay and i can probably let you take time to decide (edited)

Pretending to be someone and “coping” Nekozuna:

Around january of this year Arrow made a acc on TH called GLITTERPUPPY64 where he would focus on music and glitter/sparkle dogs and having different “acts” just like Nekozuna/GlitterPop (who is known as a cerial predator, over 100 victims, and arrow still supports him)
